“ Dear Berkie and Family, We were so very sorry to hear about Corrine's death. She was a wonderful person, but now Corrine is moving on to an even better place. Thurgood and I are sorry we could not make the funeral, but our blessings were with you. We did pay our respects on Thursday evening at March Funeral Home. We were also able to talk to Corrine's sister Dale, her husband, and niece for quite awhile. Sincerely, Punky and Goody##imported-begin##Elizabeth Parker Cosby##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Despite this difficult time, you can find comfort in the Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this, but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out...". Yes, the shed blood of Jesus Christ makes it possible to have the real hope of seeing our dead loved ones again.##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##

“ Dear family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. She really had a beautiful smile, and I know your hearts are grieving at this time. But there is good news. The bible lets us know that a wonderful resurrection is about to take place, and an end to sickness and death forever. isaiah 25,8 talks about this when it says that the sovereign Lord Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. The prophet Daniel knew long ago of this wonderful resurrection hope, and recorded at Daniel 12,2 it says: "There will be many of those in the ground of dust who will wake up, along with Acts 24,15 which says that there will be a resurrection of the righteous. One day, according to John 5:28,29 many in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of Jesus and come out of those tombs. May the love of Jehovah and Jesus sustain you, and help you get through this sorrowful time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
