

Councilwoman Beatrice F. Gaddy

February 20, 1933 - October 3, 2001

In the life of each of us, there are those moments which remain forever illumined. At times reality yields to nostalgia and the present bows to reverie. As we find ourselves drifting into reminiscence, we endeavor to share these treasured memories by focusing our thoughts on our loved one, BEATRICE FRANKIE FOWLER BROOKS GADDY, fondly loved as "Bea." Born on February 20, 1933 in Wake Forest, North Carolina, Bea was the oldest daughter of the late Mottie Fowler and Novella Davis. Yielding to the sound of trumpets while graciously accepting the loving comfort of God's merciful arms, she departed this life on Wednesday, October 3, 2001, at Johns Hopkins Hospital. The Educational Journey: After completing her elementary education, Bea completed her high school education at Dubois and N&D Technical School, in Wake Forest, North Carolina. She migrated to New York in 1952, where she found herself homeless but not helpless. In 1964, with help, she moved to Baltimore. Once settled, she found the means and stamina to begin continuing her education, specializing in the field of health and social work, attending classes at Catonsville Community College and Union Memorial Hospital, sponsored by Project Home. Upon completion of this training, Bea was certified as a Project Home Provider. In 1977, she received her B.A. degree in Human Services from Antioch College. From 1977-2000, Bea received a B.A. degree in Human Services "Alcohol and Drug Counseling," Masters degree in Counseling from the Gladd Institute of Nothetic Counseling. Bea was to have received her Doctorate Degree in Drug Counseling from the

Gladd Institute of Nothetic Counseling and her degree in Policy Studies from Johns Hopkins University in 2002. The Missions and Ministries Journey: As an advocate for hunger, homelessness and other social issues, Bea has received numerous certificates and awards. However, she earmarked her public service training under the Social Security Act, as her basic foundation. In 1981, heart in hand, refusing to be bullied, bought or bothered, Bea launched her lifelong dream of opening her first shelter, The Bea Gaddy Center, in East Baltimore. The fulfillment of this dream motivated Bea to pursue dreams above and beyond even the maximum of her potential. In addition to The Bea Gaddy Center, 1981 also gave birth to the following initiatives and centers which have remained operational on a daily basis since their inception: The Family Center, Food Pantry, Counseling for Adults and Juveniles, Cancer and Health Center, Home Renovation and Lead Abatement. On October 1, 1982, Baltimore celebrated the opening of the Patterson Park Emergency Food Center followed by the opening of the Bea Gaddy Women and Children's Center on August 24, 1989. These centers house approximately 15 women and 23 children on a daily basis. The women are allowed to live in the center for approximately 18 months, during which time they are taught self worth and how to become self-sufficient. The Furniture Bank, which opened on May 12, 1992, was Bea's most recent accomplishment. Through this effort families are able to furnish houses, apartments, or rooms for a price as small as an orange soda. This is a satellite program for the Baltimore area in conjunction with the staff members from the Cross Keys Inn. Other local cities and jurisdictions are looking at this model program, and prayerfully similar programs will spring and sprout their seeds of commitment nationwide. Bea was an Associate Minister at Amazing Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church. In 2000, she became an outreach Minister at Mt. Pisgah CME Church in Baltimore. Bea was ordained in Crystal City, Virginia on August 6, 2001. These spirit-filled endeavors impelled her to start a Women's Ministry, held at 140 N. Collington Avenue, one that equips and empowers women, who need a fresh start in life, to return to society mentally alert and morally prepared. Also included in this legacy of love is Ms. Gaddy's Cancer Outreach Education and Door-to-Door Canvasser as Prevention, loving favored with the motto, "There is help and hope for everyone." In 1999, Bea was elected as a member of the city council representing the 2nd Councilmanic District in East Baltimore. Since 1981, she always thought more of the needs of others than herself. Thousand of lives have been blessed by her diverse and numerous humanistic efforts enabling her to serve over 500,000. Thanksgiving 2001 will mark the twentieth anniversary of a legacy that began in 1981, highlighted by her serving countless families at her annual Thanksgiving Dinners and Christmas Dinners. (In 1992, 23,487 families were served at Thanksgiving which was held on the grounds of Dunbar High School in East Baltimore. In 1997, 49,000.) Always exuding a mixture of her own brand of humor, temperament, taste, talent and that humanitarian touch of deep compassion and general caring, she was encircled by a host of family and friends. Characteristic of the "Mother Figure," "Big Sister," friend and confidant, she became the rock and anchor of Baltimore and many surrounding communities, giving of her time and love without reservation. She touched the lives of countless men, women and children. Ever conscious of the plight of the hungry and homeless, she pursued in their behalf until the end. Due to her personhood, her life was an open book. Each page clearly marked, read struggle, strength, perseverance, commitment, faith, hope and love, all the ingredients of a woman of substance. Everyone who happened to read any page of her life's story, over the years, has been able to draw from her wealth of wisdom and lean on her tower of strength. From the storehouse of her mind, she has truly left us with a treasure of memories, like diamonds, that will forever sparkle in the spirit of our being. Her children, Sandra Briggs, John Fowler, Cynthia Campbell, Michael Brooks and Pamela Thomas will continue to grow from the seeds she planted in the soil of their soul, as will her eleven grandchildren, Cheri and Antonio Laws Jr., Quinique and Quinnard Jones, Genice, Jenell, Marquita, John and Kendric Fowler; and eight great grandchildren. Her three brothers, Mottie and Anthony Fowler, Peter Young and one sister, Mable Beasley along with her brother- and sisters-in-law, and a host of other relatives and lifelong friends will always remember how, against all odds, Bea lifted the torch for the hungry and homeless, and now having beaten the odds, she's victoriously marching, torch in hand, into victory.

“ Family: Your mother has left behind a legacy that will forever shine. She epitomizes the phrase, "Let my work speak for me". Because of her background and her experiences she grew to know that the only way to take back your life after situations seem to dictate that you are defeated, is to look the problem in the eye and say to yourself that I am a survivor and I will not be defeated. The road may be hard and the journey rough. But with God as my guide, I will triumph. No one will be able to fill the void of your mother's passing, but you have a treasure of memories and a wealth of history to pass on to your children and other children to come what it means to give. To give without getting anything back but the joy and happiness that you helped someone who may feel that there is no hope or that no one cares. The awesome job your mother performed for so many people of all kinds of background and economic status will forever be a reminder to all mankind that all it take is love, committment, and the desire to help our fellow man. Through all of the dedication your mother gave to the people of Baltimore, we all stand in line with a salute to a soldier of God. I know that you will miss your mom but hold true to your heart that you have had one of the greatest gifts that could ever be bestowed on someone.... Your Mother.##imported-begin##Arlene & Donald Gill and Family##imported-end##

“ Grace and peace. We Judah Praise were very blessed to have met Ms. Gaddy last year at the Thanksgiving Dinner. Prior to that we auditioned at N.Collington for her and it was a honor as well as to sing on that Thanksgiving Day. We loved her spirit and ambition. One thing she said to us was how she would like to have one big service with many Gospel groups in the area at one big place and just sing and have a nice time praising the Lord. one thing I know, that is probably one of the things she is administrating in heaven and passing out heavenly fruit from the fruit tree. “ Ms. Gaddy, "the Mother Theresa of Baltimore" was truly an angel that God sent to help the needy of Baltimore. She never judged anyone -- in her eyes, we are all God's children. As busy as she was, when I brought her donations, she always took time to sit with me and ask me how medical school is and encourage me in all that I was doing. She took time out of her very busy schedule to come and speak to the students at UMBC about her life and how important it is to help others. She has raised the standard for helping people that we all must aspire to. She cared about everyone and made time for everyone no matter how many things she was doing. I want to end with a quote, which I believe summarizes a lot of Ms. Gaddy's work and I hope we will all continue to bring help and hope to those less fortunate than ourselves. "Hope has two beautiful daughters. Their names are anger and courage; anger at the way things are and courage to see that they do not remain the way they are."###imported-begin###Lily Alemi###imported-end###

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the family during their time of bereavement. Bea Gaddy was a remarkable woman, activist and humanitarian. I had the pleasure and honor of hearing a Speech at Villa Julie in 1991 (standing room only) and I was amazed and overwhelmed with emotion as I listened to the powerful message that was delivered by Ms. Bea. I also had an opportunity to personally meet Ms. Bea Gaddy at the Collington St. location and donated money, food and clothing. She sat me down and preceded to give me an explanation of the many pictures that were displayed on the wall and to tell me about her mission. She also took me on a tour of her new outreach center, which was located next door to the building that accepts donations. I was truly impressed by her enthusiasm, spirit, and character. She took 3 hours out of her time on this busy Sunday 3 weeks before Christmas to talk to me and give me a tour. I cried at the end of my visit because I thought there were so many things she could have done during that period, but sacrificed that time for me. I thanked her then and I feel truly blessed to have been allowed that time which I will always treasure to spend time with Ms. Bea. I will miss you Ms. Bea, as the many people of Baltimore and the rest of the Country will... May peace and blessing be with the Family. Love, Rayna D.

“ Bea Gaddy was a giant in our community of organizations that help disadvantaged people. Whether it was hunger, or any other consequence of poverty, she gave, and gave, and gave – whatever she had. Many of us have slogans for what we do – hers could have been “I walk the talk.” A meeting with Bea at her place was wonderful to observe – how she stayed with the core concept while helping dozens of people who floated in and out. One couldn't object to the distractions as it was so obvious that her people came first. In our eyes her legacy will be that she created a giving environment. People recognized her name and gave from their hearts and pocket books to her and to others who helped in the same cause. Those others will work on – hundreds of emergency care providers throughout the City address the needs of thousands of people who find themselves in an emergency situation every day. Bea has left us but we'll make sure she's not forgotten. Baltimore is blessed for having been her home.###imported-begin###Bill Ewing, Maryland Food Bank###imported-end##

“ I had the opportunity to eat at two of Dr. Gaddy's famed Thanksgiving dinners, and I also had the pleasure of meeting her at Mt. Pisgah CME Church, where she served as a minister. She was a most pleasant person, and I believe that God gives special notice of those who live their lives asking for help for others, as opposed to themselves. Dr. Gaddy truly did more with her resources than entire churches have done, and I know that tonight, heaven has a new angel. My prayers are with your family. “ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family of Bea Gaddy. For all that she has done for Baltimore City, she will be deeply missed by all. My best freind and I were fortunate to have had the opportunity to feed the homeless and the less fortunate during Thanksgiving that is held annually at Dunbar High School. It was initially for community service hours that is required for high school, but, Bea Gaddy also shared with us that it's all about helping out people even if sometimes you cannot help yourself. She aslo taught us that we can help one another not just on holidays, but everyday of your life. Whether it's just preparing food for someone, or just lending an ear to a stranger, it makes all the difference. She was a woman of great determination, stealth, and valor. It really felt good that day to extend a hand to a lot of people. Once again, I commend her on her bravery and her humanity. Thank you.##imported-begin##Crystal Veniey##imported-end##

“ My heart mourns with the family of Bea Gaddy, an angel sent to the Baltimore community by God. She truly exhibited the selflessness of a Christian. We shall all miss her humanitarian efforts, her tireless advocacy for the underprivileged and her determination to feed more and more people on Thanksgiving Day and throughout the year. My life has been touched by this angel and I will always hold her memory close to my heart. May God bless each and every member of her family.##imported-begin##Arthur Hill, III##imported-end##

“ Thank you to the family for not having a private celebration and for allowing the community to share and participate in the Homegoing Celebration. It was truly and honor to be in the presence of Minister Bea for the a final time. She was so beautiful as always. She looked at peace. I will continue to pray for strength for the family for days to come. That God will fill the void in your hearts with His love. Peace and Blessing, Sister Tanwa##imported-begin##Tanwa M.
