

Courtney Louise Hunter

October 29, 1947 - June 3, 2025

Courtney Louise Hunter was born October 29, 1947 in Fredericksburg Virginia to Chasteen and Edwina Willis. She was called home to the pearly gates of heaven on June 3, 2025.

Courtney was an excellent educator. She started her educational career, teaching, exceptional education and general education classes in the elementary school level. From there she acquired her masters degree, and went on to be an assistant principal for Richmond Public schools and also a science professor at VCU. She then retired in 2003 from the role of a lesson coordinator for state based education at the mathematics and science center. Her love for education was so great she aspired to continue learning.

Courtney attended classes at Virginia Union University where she obtained a degree in theology, and took on the prominent role at any church she attended as the lead of Sunday school and vacation Bible study. Education was her true love.

She leaves to cherish her memory two loving daughters Raylyn Lydea Hunter-Claiborne (Eric Lydell Claiborne Jr.) and Corinne Larneé Hunter; five grandchildren Mondre Claiborne, Amarri Hunter, Arya Hunter, Aireca Hunter-Claiborne and Trey Claiborne; three great grandchildren, K'amille Hunter, Ahnesti Claiborne, and awaiting the soon arrival of Kobe Hunter and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My Cousin Courtney will be missed at our family activities, as she graciously tried to support us along with her father Chasteen when she was able. Her cousins love her dearly and will keep her and her daughters in our prayers along with her grandchildren. Continue to pray and strive for excellence as your mother and grandmother did during her eventful life.

May God Bless the family and please accept my deepest condolences.

Blessed,

Cousin Christine Willis-Bennett

“ I truly enjoyed the times we shared, I am sorry that I haven't seen you or spent time in a few years.
I still have memories of sharing a meal, visiting churches and even visiting your lovely home in Fredericksburg.
I will always cherish the beautiful Bible you blessed me with on my birthday.
It is now time for your rest, may God continue to bless your family whom you loved so dearly.
May peace be with them for the loss is great. Love you forever.
