

Crystal C. Johnson

September 28, 1958 - February 13, 2006

CRYSTAL CHERYL was born on September 28, 1958 to Mary Edmonds Fowlkes and Isaac Johnson. She departed this life on February 13, 2006, after a lengthy illness. Crystal's life speaks powerfully to us about a mother's love for her child - a loving and extraordinary commitment. Over and over again the actions of her mother and others sent that message of love and was rewarded by the twinkle in her eyes, a slight gesture of recognition. So let Crystal's life be a reminder to us, to make our children feel valued and important - that God gave them to us to love and protect and in many ways they gave to us more than we gave to them. For it is they who are God's presence, promise, and hope for humankind. Crystal's life - a timely message of hope and purpose for all mothers who love their children. She leaves to mourn: her mother, Mary Fowlkes; sister, Freddia Dean McCoy; two brothers, Roland Poindexter of Boston, Massachusetts and James Poindexter; sister-in-law, Anna Poindexter; three aunts, Jessie Williams, Ruth Edmonds and Bessie Edmonds; Just Cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My sincere condolences to the family. In difficult times such as this the scriptures has brought me and many others comfort. When reading Acts 24:15 we are told that, "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Thanks to the resurrection hope we will soon be freed from the dread of dying. May this scripture give you all a measure of comfort.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ Many of us go through a difficult journey in our lives. Sickness has really taken it's toll on mankind. So very sorry that sickness took your loved one away from you. As you grieve, try to remember this. Sickness, sorrow, and death was never a part of Jehovah's purpose for people. Isaiah 33:24 tells us that soon, "No resident will say, I am sick." Also John 5:28,29 tells us that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. So all in God's memory have an opportunity to live again. Won't that be a joyous day? I hope these wonderful promises from Jehovah bring you some comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
