

Crystal Margaret Oliver

September 13, 1980 - June 5, 2024

with profound sadness, we announce the passing of Crystal Margaret Oliver, affectionately know as "Chris", who departed this life on June 2, 2024. Born on September 13, 1980, in Richmond, Virginia, Crystal was the beloved daughter of Ricky B. Joyner and the late Carrie L. Allen.

From an early age, Crystal's spirit shone brightly. She attended Hayes Memorial Baptist Church in Greensboro, North Carolina, where she joyfully sang with the "Busy Bee" youth choir. After moving back to Richmond, she joined the Church of the Body of Christ, where her faith deepened, and she was baptized under the guidance of the late Reverend Moses Miles.

Crystal's educational journey was remarkable. At the tender age of seven, she attended modeling school in Inglewood, California, and Clyde Woodworth Elementary School in Greensboro, North Carolina, and Intermediate School 394 in Brooklyn, New York. Upon returning to Richmond, she completed her education at Laburnum Elementary and graduated from Henrico High School. Crystal furthered her studies at ECPI College and embarked on a professional career, contributing to various companies, including White Oak, until her health no longer permitted.

Known for her independent spirit, Crystal cherished her solitude but also treasured the company of family and friends who understood her well. She found joy in watching her favorite shows, engaging in odd jobs, and tinkering around the house. Her presence was a source of light and happiness to those around her.

Crystal leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories. She is survived by her father, Ricky Bernard Joyner; her son, Charles Andrew III; her stepmother, Linda Joyner; her stepbrother, Reginald Allen; two aunts, Tina Oliver and Pastor Novella Miles; her uncle, Clarence Oliver(Carol Oliver); and a host of beloved relatives and friends.

As we mourn her loss, we also celebrate the beautiful life she lived and the lasting mark she left on our hearts. Crystal's memory will forever remain a beacon of love, faith , and joy.
