

Curetha H. Fields

October 10, 1940 - March 26, 2025

CURETHA FIELDS, affectionately known as “Bay”, was born to the late Curtis and Bernetha Fields on October 10, 1940, in Lamar, South Carolina. The family relocated to Baltimore, Maryland when she was two years old.

Curetha attended school in Baltimore City and graduated from Dunbar High School in 1958. During the adult career, she worked for Westinghouse, Maryland Transit Administration, and was a caregiver to adults.

In 1960, she married Calvin Moseley (deceased). From this union three children were born, Robyn, Eric and Terri. Later in life, she was blessed with another son, Julian Fields.

Curetha was raised in the Church of God (Monroe & Saratoga Sts). She accepted the Lord as her personal Saviour, was a member and attended until her health failed.

She enjoyed watching Charles Stanley and David Jeremiah on Sunday mornings. When she was well, some of her favorite things to do were cooking, baking, sewing, crocheting, talking on the phone and she absolutely loved watching westerns.

She was pre-deceased by her sister Mary Alice Forcer and two brothers, Cal

Fields and Darryl Fields.

The legacy of Curetha, will continue to live on in the hearts of her children, Robyn, Eric Terri (Fiancé, Kent), and Julian; her sister, Tarrian Cornelius (Daniel); three granddaughters, Jasmine, Ariana, and Jade; seven great-grandchildren, Kamari, Jayden, Journi, Aiah, Kendrick, Jordyn and Jamora; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
