

Curlie Mae Commodore

June 17, 1924 - April 21, 2007

Curlie Mae Spell was born on June 17, 1924 to the late Warren and Rosa Spell in Greenville, North Carolina. Curlie Mae was the eighth child of twelve, she was baptized at an early age. Curlie Mae attended Greenville School and graduated in 1943. In 1944, she came to Baltimore City, where she then met Willie Commodore. They then got married in 1946, during that union they had three children, Bettie Jean, Gerald Lionell, and Annette Denise Commodore. Curlie Mae worked at Bethlehem Steel from 1944 to 1946. Curlie Mae then became a housewife, later after that she went into being a nursing assistant at old Sinai. She worked at a women's hospital, then started work at Greater Baltimore Medical Center. Later, she worked at the Bon Secour Hospital, shortly after that she had to stop due to sickness. Curlie Mae was a wonderful woman and will be greatly missed. Curlie Mae leaves to mourn: a brother, Warren Spell; sister, Kattie Spell; sister-in-law, Ruthy Spell; (two brothers and four sisters preceded her in death); three children, Bettie Jean Brown, Gerald Lionell Commodore and Annette Denise Garner; two sons-in-law, Charles Brown and James Garner; sister-in-law, Nancy Jean Commodore; nine grandchildren, Warren, Curlie, Anita, Toni, Lil Gerald, Lamont, Nikki, Tina and Willie; two grandsons-in-law, Eric and Rueben; sixteen great-grandchildren, five great-great grandchildren and a host of other family members and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible is a treasure chest of comfort and hope. (Romans 15:4) Acts 24:15 lovingly declares- "There is going to be a resurrection." For many this will occur on a Paradise earth with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Isaiah 65:17, Psalm 37:29, John 5:21,28,29) May you receive much comfort, hope and strength from these Bible promises. And may you draw close to the maker of them Jehovah God and his son Jesus Christ. (John 17:3)##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I wish to send my deepest sympathy to the family of Ms. Commodore. When we lose a loved one in death many questions come about, and it is only natural to want to know the answers to these questions. God's inspired word the bible gives us those answers. Why we grow and die can be found at Romans 5:12. The hope of the resurrection can found at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4. May your family find comfort from these encouraging scriptures.##imported-begin##Kashawn Smith##imported-end##
