“ My favorite uncle. My uncle was the first person to carry me to a football game. First person to take me hunting. I remember on the first time we went hunting, When I was aiming at a squire, and he was telling he how to hold and shoot the shotgun, I pulled the trigger before he could finish telling me what to do and the shotgun kicked me to the ground and him and uncle BT laugh at me but I hit the squire. The next week, he brought me my own 22 riffle. Anytime I really needed something, he always would look out for me, even when Janice and I was married. He loved his family. Growing up, every year before I started highscool, he would take me to the Walker and Armstrong classic. I went so many places with him growing up and a lot of times I was the only kid there. My uncle Nor (Curtis I. Creighton) was my favorite along with " I will smack dust from you" uncle BT. May they both R I P. I love you. My last uncle. I'm going to miss you, but will never forget you. To my aunt Mildred, he will always be with us.
