To The Epps Family,

Although we did not get to see Curtis often after he moved back to the city, our hearts remained with him because he was there for us during our losses. You have our deepest sympathy. Just know that Curtis is in a better place, one in which we all must bear someday. Your hearts are burdened now, but lean on the Lord for guidance and your comfort will come.

Our prayers and continued support are with you today and always.

Respectfully Submitted,

*Roni Ford & Family

“ I want to express my sorrow over the loss of your loved one. Losing a loved one is something we all wish we never had to go through. Thankfully, within his word the Bible, God promises us that soon "death will be no more". He also gives us the hope of seeing our loved ones who have already fallen asleep in death (Revelation 21:3-4, John 5:28,29). Again I am extending my sincere condolences to the family.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
