

Curtis "Rocky" Hodge Jr.

March 19, 1954 - May 9, 2017

CURTIS HODGE, son of the late Curtis and Shirley Hodge began his earthly life on March 19, 1954 in Sumter, South Carolina. He departed this life suddenly on May 9, 2017.

Cur

tis received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He worked as a construction worker until he became disabled.

"Rocky", as everyone called him, loved to watch TV, especially football and baseball games. He was always in the refrigerator eating up your food. Rocky didn't know the word "no", I really don't know if he knew how to spell "no" because he never said "no", everything was always "yes". He did everything for everybody.

Rocky had a special bond with his great nieces and great nephews; LaBrina, Janera, Eariona, Eariya, Lakiya, Rahiem. He took them to their doctor's appointments and walked them to school. He also had a dog named "Prince" that he took everywhere with him. They're going to really miss him, "Uncle Rocky".

Curtis received his wings and is now reunited with his mother and father; his sister, Linda; one grandson, Malik; one great-grandson, Jontae; four great-nephews, Rashawn Jesse Little Bernie and Davon ; one aunt, Dorothy; six uncles, Christopher, Melvin, John, Gilbert, Samuel and Abbie; his aunts, Ruth and Thelma; Grandma Alice, Essie, Bernie and Aunt Emma, Lil Bernie and Davon.

His loving memory will forever be cherished by: his three children, Mary, Tiffany and Terrell Hodge; grandchildren, Shelitta, Jasmine, Shaniqua, Sierra, Tyrek, Taliah, Tamiah, Sequoia and Terrell Jr.; great-grandkids, Daiveon, Lanayah, Aiden, Malachi, Micah; two sisters, Dorothy and Karen; three brothers, Melvin (Shamar), Timothy and Bernie; one aunt, Edith; one uncle, Walter; a host of nieces, nephews, other families, friends and most of all his dog, "Prince". We are going to really miss him.
