

Curtis T. Hunt

March 30, 1948 - March 2, 2015

CURTIS T. HUNT was born March 30, 1948 in Bowman, Georgia, the son of the late Lee Ora Hunt and Bessie Hunt. On Monday, March 2, 2015 at University of Maryland Medical Center Curtis Hunt finished his life here to begin his eternal life with God.

Curtis was baptized at an early age at New Mt. Hebron Baptist Church on George St. under the leadership of Pastor Long. He was a member of the Junior Usher Board where he served several years. His favorite songs were "Father Alone He Knows All About It" and "Lily of the Valley."

He was educated at Carver Vocational Technical High School where he majored in tailoring and participated in several sports. Curtis worked at Bethlehem Steel Shipyard for a number of years with his father and uncle, Beotra Alexander.

He was a good-hearted, free-spirited and happy person. Curtis was always willing to take care of family members and friends. He never left home without praising God and thanked God when he returned. Some of his enjoyments were reading and quoting scriptures from the Bible.

Curtis T. Hunt leaves to mourn: his son, Curtis Hunt; two brothers, William Turner (Janice) and Clarence Hunt; three sisters, Bessie 1. Hunt, Apostle Althinia Hunt, D.D. of Henrico, Virginia and Genevia Hunt Davis (Henry); and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
