

Curtis Mayo

September 1, 1926 - January 7, 2006

CURTIS MAYO was born on September 1, 1926 in Greenville, North Carolina to the late Elizabeth and Wright Mayo. Curtis departed this life on Saturday, January 7, 2006 after a long illness. He joined the U. S. Army on April 10, 1945 and was honorably discharged on November 24, 1946. He met and married the late Mary Mayo in 1949. They had no biological children, but were very close to their nieces and nephews and treated them as if they were their own. Curtis was a retired truck driver and also worked for a restoration company after his retirement. He loved playing the slots and was always up for a drive to Delaware Park. He was also an avid fisherman. He kept his tackle box always at the ready in the trunk of his car. He was known for bringing those delicious barbecued ribs along with that special sauce in the mason jar to all family cook outs. Curtis was preceded in death by two brothers, Arthur and Garland Mayo. Curtis leaves to cherish his memory: his sister, Margaret Jackson; brother, Andrew Mayo; sister-in-law, Alice Mayo; nine nieces, seven nephews, a host of great-nieces and great-nephews, cousins; a devoted friend, Grace; and a host of friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Curtis Mayo

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My sincere sympathy goes out to your family. May you find comfort in the scriptures about God's promise of a resurrection. Revelations 21:4 says that Almighty God is going to wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more..... With death gone forever we can look forward to paradise conditions.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ So very sorry to hear of your loss. Death is a very sad event that we all have to endure. May you be comforted by the hope of the ressurection. John5:28,29 tells us that all those in the memorial tombs will one day hear his voice and come out. God"s purpose is for mankind to have eternal life in peace and happiness. May those thoughts comfort you and give you a hope for the future of seeing your loved one again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family and friends of Curtis, my deepest condolences. May you cherish his memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM