“ My condolences Sister Bernice in the homegoing of your beloved. Truly Curtis will be missed for he was adorned by all folks who knew him, a man of valor, style, charisma and most of all he displayed his Christian walk in faith, service and love. That smile of his was always welcoming and his mannerisms were always proper. So, be encouraged Sister Bernice for God has picked once again a flower of substance and a jewel of heavenly light. Remember as you live, he will always live inside and with you until you both meet once again in eternity. In the name of Jesus Christ.

Amen

“ Bernice,

I am sending you prayers, comfort and strength to you as you find your way through this difficult journey. I offer my heartfelt sympathies during this incredibly challenging time. Your husband's memory will forever be a source of strength and inspiration. The loss of a spouse leaves a void that words cannot fill.
