

Curtis Spruill

February 25, 2015 - February 26, 2015

A life touched by God, always ends in touching others.

Curtis Spruill, 72, of Richmond, departed this life February 26, 2015. He was born to the late Mary and Precher Spruill in Halifax County, North Carolina. He is preceded in death by his eleven siblings.

He was educated in the Halifax County School System and later moved to Richmond in the early 60's. He married the love of his life, Alice Booker on May 19, 1963 in Richmond. From this union three children were born.

After 40 years of dedicated service, he retired from Tamarc Lone Star Company as a heavy equipment operator.

Curtis was an outstanding example of a very giving human being. He put the needs of others before himself and cared deeply for his loved ones. Curtis was the other half of the backbone, strength, and light of his family, next to his wife of 52 years. He was a quite, gentle, kind, loving, compassionate man that had a glorious smile. Along with fishing, Curtis welcomed and loved spending time with his grandchildren which he adored.

He leaves to cherish his memory a loving and devoted wife, Alice Spruill; three daughters, Sabrina Spruill, Lisa Taylor and Blanche Epps (Charles); son, Curtis C. Spruill (Monica); five grandchildren; two sisters, Mary Glen Charles and Carolyn Spruill; brother, William Spruill (Audrey); and a host of other relatives and friends.

A precious one from us is gone, his voice we loved is still
A place is vacant in our hearts, that never can be filled.
