

Curtis J Storey Jr

July 6, 1965 - January 5, 2024

CURTIS JUNIS STOREY JR., affectionately known as “Bubbles,” was born on July 6, 1965 to Lillie Mae Fields and Curtis Storey Sr. He departed this life and entered eternal rest on January 5, 2024. Growing up in Baltimore, Maryland with a loving family, Curtis was the ninth of Lillie Mae’s ten children.

During his childhood, Curtis attended Rutland Elementary School and Clifton Park Middle School. After earning his GED, Curtis worked as a circular delivery carrier for many years. He then worked in retail as a seafood clerk and manager. Curtis went on to work as a floor custodian at several nursing homes. Although Curtis never married or had children of his own, he had a special longtime friend, Beverly, who he truly loved.

Curtis was known as a jokester. He knew how to have fun and loved to dance. In every conversation, you would always hear Curtis end his statements with “shucks” in a way only he could say it. Curtis loved to play cards and checkers. His other hobbies were bike riding, playing pool and watching Baltimore Ravens football. Curtis thought he was a harmonica player. He would always sing songs at any family function. Curtis was very much loved by all his friends and family. He was an affectionate man, always telling everyone he loved them and giving them hugs.

Curtis gave his life to the Lord. He became a member of Berea Church & Ministries where Jerry Richards is the pastor. Although Curtis was full of life and love, he was ill for some time. He managed to press on daily despite the many ailing health conditions impacting him.

Curtis was preceded in death by his parents and siblings Charles, David, Shirely, and William. Curtis leaves to cherish his memory his siblings Deborah, Robin, Francenia, Tammie, and Calvin as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
