September 29, 1957 - December 7, 2023

Curtis Earl Todd was born on September 29, 1957, to the late Samuel E. Todd and the late Annette L. Holmes. Curtis left us peacefully on December 7, 2023.

Curtis, also known as "Big Curtis" or "Reds," received his education in Baltimore City Public schools, where he learned carpentry. He worked various jobs over the years, but his favorite was working at Rusty Scupper, he made many friends there.

Curtis met and married Nadine Davis on June 9, 1991. Out of their union, one son was born, Donte E. Todd. Although Curtis & Nadine went their separate ways, they and their family's remained family. Curtis loved how our families loved one another and would want nothing more, but for that love to continue. The love, laughter and memories will still be shared in his honor.

He loved his family and friends more than anything, attended every family function and never missed any important moments. We know he will still be at each and every one in spirit with his fancy dance moves. He created his own dance moves that made everyone laugh, we will miss getting caught trying to catch him on camera most. Curtis also loved sports; he enjoyed time with Donte watching the games or the games watching them.

Curtis knew or at least seemed like he knew, almost everyone in Baltimore. Whenever he was out, he was sure to run into somebody. He always greeted you with a smile and would give you the best hug or handshake. He was famous for his check ins, he would call and check in on everyone often, but if you asked him how he was doing, he would always say "Don't worry about me, I'm ard!"
