

Cynthia Elizabeth Brown

July 12, 1948 - January 25, 2019

Cynthia Elizabeth Brown, departed this life to be with the Lord on Friday, January 25, 2019. She was born on July 12, 1948, the third child to the late Martha and Sterling R. Brown in New Kent County, Virginia.

Beth, as she was fondly known to her family joined New Elam Baptist Church at an early age and sang in the Junior Choir. She was educated and graduated from the G.W. Watkins School. After graduation, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she furthered her education at Morgan State University and worked as a teacher's assistant in the Baltimore School System for 42 years.

While in Baltimore, Beth attended Concord Baptist Church where she served as an usher. Beth took her ushering duties seriously and served as chairman for a brief time. She also took great pleasure in doing the welcome and reading Christmas poems at the Christmas breakfast.

Though she had none of her own, Beth was very fond of children and loved working with them and spoiling them on a daily basis. She also adored her nieces, nephews, sisters and brothers too! She was lively, loving, giving, caring and kind person who loved to laugh. Beth was the type of person who would give you the very last of what she had. While in Baltimore, she traveled to New Kent for every holiday and spent a few weeks during the summer as well. Once Beth retired, she returned to her roots - New Kent County and attended her home church. She loved to hear the Men's Choir sing, "Jesus Cares," and was quick to give them songs she wanted to hear them sing.

Beth was preceded in death by her sister, Wanda and niece, Barbie. She is survived to cherish her memories, siblings, Sterling C., Theresa, Deacon Johnny and Reverend Sterline Brown; nieces, Carmen Jacobs, Dr. Candice Brown (goddaughter) and Caitlin Howser; great niece, Claire Cumberbatch; great nephews, Zachary Jacobs, Spencer and Trever Cumberbatch; sisters-in-law, Catherine and Lillian Brown; five uncles, William Woodson (Claudette); Meaco Woodson Bey (Annie), Charlie and Vernon Eggleston and Deacon Earl Brown; four aunts, Gloria Bassett, Rosalee, Marilyn Eggleston and Ida Brown; two great aunts, Fannie Burrell Smith and Helen Ziegler; and a host of cousins, other relatives and caring friends.

God Saw You Getting Tired

God say you getting tired, and a cure was not to be.

So He put His arms around you and whispered "Come to Me."

With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away.

Although we loved you dearly we could not make you stay.

Your golden heart stopped beating, your hard working hands to rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best.
