

Cynthia D. Chaney

September 7, 1963 - November 10, 2020

Cynthia Denise Chaney was born to the late Newborn Theron Weaver and the late Cora Evans Weaver on September 7, 1963. The Lord called her to eternal life on November 10, 2020. Cynthia was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. During this period of her life, she attended Springhill Elementary School, Callaway Elementary School, Pimlico Junior High School, and the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute (where she earned her High School Diploma through the "A" Course Program.) Cynthia attended then Coppin State College, where she earned her Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education. She also attained a Master's Level Certification in Elementary Education from the Notre Dame College of Maryland in addition to her unique skills in mastering American Sign Language. Upon graduation, Cynthia taught at various types of schools such as a Private School, two Public Schools, and a Charter School. Specifically, she taught at Bethel Christian School, Patapsco Elementary School, Frederick Douglass High School, and New Song Academy. In 2000, Cynthia was selected as Teacher of the Year by the Baltimore City Council of Parent/Teacher Association. Cynthia was married to the late Gary Antonio Chaney on April 4, 1987 and lasted until their divorce on November 29, 2007. From this union, one son was born: Gary Antonio Chaney, II. Cynthia attended Grace Presbyterian Church. She was active and served as a devoted member of the Board of Deacons and the Handbell Choir. She truly had a wonderful spirit and giving heart. Cynthia devoted her life to helping others through education and uplifting them through words of encouragement. She touched many lives encountered through her calm and caring demeanor. Her hobbies were taking annual Thanksgiving trips to Lancaster, Pennsylvania; taking summer trips with her son, baking cookies and cakes for holidays, playing video games, bowling, dominoes, card games, and watching her favorite shows and movie son television. She is also a devoted Baltimore Ravens fan who enjoyed shaming her brother who is a devoted Jacksonville Jaguars fan.

Cynthia is survived by her son, Gary Antonio Chaney, II; a brother, Christopher Anthony Weaver; sister-in-law, Shirley Ann Colter-Weaver; loving cousin, Hilda Lorraine Ellison; and a host of other relatives and friends.
