

Cynthia E. Cure

June 30, 1959 - March 19, 2014

CYNTHIA ELIZABETH CURE, the daughter of Christine Cure and the late Isiah P. Cure, was born on June 30, 1959 at City Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the first of six kids. She was called home on March 19, 2014 due to a sudden stroke. Cynthia attended Baltimore City public schools. Later on, she obtained her GED. She worked at Sherwin Williams for twenty-five years, then she spent her last eight years at RPCS where she was a devoted facility staff member. She was the jack of all trades! She also did catering on the side with her friend Andy. She made friends and some lifetime enemies throughout her work career! During the seventies, she met Mr. Eugene McAllister, who later became her son's father. Her life changed when she gave birth to her son Eugene "Mano" McAllister on December 1, 1977. He was her first and only son. Her siblings were attached to him as if he was their own child. Cymp didn't play about her son! He was her partner in crime. Mano was spoiled as a child all the way into his adulthood! He gave her the greatest gift she could have ever received, and it was her her grandkids Shyasia and La'Shay McAllister. She had a heart of gold. She stepped up to help raise Tria and the late Davon when her sister, the late Rata, passed away in 1994. Although raising them and living together wasn't easy she never led them astray. Cymp loved her family. She was so distraught about losing her nephew Davon and then her uncle Eddie. She had an epiphany to put family first and her saying was "We all we got, Boo". She was very family oriented. She adored her grandkids, nieces and nephews and dog Buster, her new BFF. She would be the loudest at graduations, parties and any event! She was the life of the party! You couldn't pay her to sit her butt down on that dance floor. She turned up for real (lol)...! She will meet her two sisters who preceded her in death, Brenda and Rata Cure. She leaves to cherish her memory: Christine Cure (mother), Deborah Cure, her last living sister; two brothers, James and Isiah Cure; son, Eugene "Mano" McAllister; two grandkids, Shyasia and La'Shay McAllister; seven nieces, Deidrea, Keisha, Tenika, Dominique, Andrea, Janel and Brenda; four nephews, Antonio, James, Darren and Brandon; three devoted "sisters from another mister", Priscillia, Emma and Diane; a host of other friends and relatives. “ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ Miss Sydney took care of us in the Lower School at RPCS. She had such a smile! Such a cheerful approach to life! But most importantly, her dedication to ensuring a healthy future for our planet -- as shown by her stewardship and care of RPCS's recycling program -- set an example for all of our children and inspired everyone in the Lower School. We will surely miss her.

“ I remember calling you to tell you that I passed the GED test, you were so proud u brought a bottle of champagne and that I held on to and when I moved to Kia's house her uncles drank itlol!!! Why did they do that? I'm sure your mouth was the last thing they wanted to hear!!! Lmbo.....boy did u give them the blues! I've learned so much from you.

You taught me to only depend on myself cause I'll never let me down! You've made such an impact on my life and I'll never forget you! I love you aunt Cindy!!!

TRUE BILLS (in your voice) U WERE MY ANGEL IN DISGUISE
