

Cynthia Daughtry

January 3, 1958 - May 11, 2022

On Wednesday, May 11, 2022, Cynthia Lorraine Brooks Tinsley-Daughtry transitioned from her earthly life to her eternal life at VCU Hospital. She was born on January 3, 1958, in Richmond, Virginia, and was raised by Lawrence Brooks and Rosa Howard Brooks in Hanover County, Virginia. She was lovingly called "Cindy" by her family and friends.

Cindy attended Lee Davis High School and graduated class of 1976. She was baptized at an early age and became a member of First Union Baptist Church, Mechanicsville, Virginia. She sang in the choir and was a member of the Starlettes, a gospel group of young ladies. She also sang in the Young People's Choir at Pleasant Grove Baptist Church in earlier years. She married her high school sweetheart, Hardy Tinsley, Jr. in 1975 and from that union, a daughter was born. They later divorced and she married Keith Daughtry in 1982 who departed his life on August 12, 2019. She enjoyed reading books, playing cards, board games and playing the piano, and working with computers. Her passion for working with computers awarded her to work as a computer programmer right out of high school for over 25 years. She had several employers such as the Commonwealth of Virginia, Wheat First Securities, Export Leaf Tobacco, and Overnight Transportation.

She is preceded in death by her daughter, Chanelle Tinsley, and her parents Lawrence and Rosa Brooks. She leaves to cherish her memory her daughter, Lakeshia Tinsley (Robert); a granddaughter, Serenity Baskerville, sister, Pamela Henley (Jerome), two aunts, Marion Atkins, Zanderine Smith (Burton, Sr.), and a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends.
