

Cynthia D. Eckels

June 21, 1947 - January 31, 2021

Cynthia D. Eckels, daughter of the late Abraham and Lillian Simms, was born on , June 21, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. Cynthia was the third of eight children.

Cynthia attended Baltimore City public schools, where she graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School, class of 1966, and received her Maryland High School Diploma.

She had numerous jobs where she worked diligently, and ultimately completed her employment with the Social Security Administration located in Woodlawn, Maryland.

Cynthia obeyed the gospel and was baptized on February 1, 1995 at the Deer Park Church of Christ in Randallstown, Maryland and later placed her membership with the East Baltimore Church of Christ, where she faithfully attended until her illness. She loved her minister and church family.

She loved getting her nails and hair done at the beauty salon. Cynthia also loved cooking and spending time with her two sons, Edgar and Shane, who also were the love of her life.

Cynthia was preceded in death by her faithful husband of 24 years, Edgar (Bayboy} Eckels that was the love of her life, her parents, and a sister.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Edgar D. Eckels and Shane O. Eckels; three grandchildren, India Eckels, Jalen Eckels, and Isaiah Eckels; two brothers, Robert Cooper (Minnie) and Gerald Cooper; four sisters, Ernestine Stanley (James), Minnie Jones (Troy), Paulette Simms, and Adrian Simms of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

I grew up “Sissy Girl”. She had such a sweet spirit and maintained the same over the years. I didn’t get an opportunity to see her often, but when I did see her she loved talking about her boys and grandchildren. She loved her family and friends. She leaves a legacy for everyone— be compassionate and loving.
