

Cynthia S. Johnson

December 6, 1964 - December 6, 2021

Cynthia Sharron Johnson, daughter of Martha J. Dotson and the late Charles A. Corbin, was born January 6, 1964 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a brief unexpected illness Cynthia was called home to be with our heavenly Father on December 6, 2021.

Cynthia was educated at Oakland Mills High School in Columbia, Maryland, and attended BCC in Baltimore, Maryland to study nursing. Soon after, she started her nursing career working with disabled adults providing home care for 20 years. Cynthia loved life and enjoyed the times she spent with family and friends. She made it her duty in life to dedicate her time to her children and grandchildren. Cynthia also enjoyed watching her television shows: Law and Order, Jerry Springer, Young and the Restless, and Bold and the Beautiful to say the least. Cynthia will always be remembered as "Mommy" because every neighborhood she moved to she took in so many people and loved them as they were her own children.

One thing for sure, Cynthia made sure she walked out of the house looking her best. If you knew her then you knew she loved getting dolled up. She made sure she had her lipstick on, nails done, and her her wigs with a pop of color in them. Nobody could tell her anything. Cynthia was always a tough and strong person. She overcame so many challenges in her life and raised her children to be the strong black queens.

Cynthia leaves to cherish her memory: her mom, Martha Dotson; four daughters, Monical, Teanna, Tiffany, and Candice; one brother, Eddie Dotson; and sister Tonia Johnson; eight grandchildren, Davon, Tyriq, Deonte, Dashawn, Jasmine, Shadaya, Devin, and Dal'lys; her second moms Garland Forrest and Jeanette; her fiances', Michael Gillis; three extended sisters, Sherry, helen, & Charlene; two extended daughters, Syreeta Saunders and India McCaffity, two god-daughters, Chevon and Myeisha; a host of their relatives and friends
