

Cynthia Cedonia Johnson

August 22, 1952 - August 7, 2010

CYNTHIA CEDONIA JOHNSON, also know as “Cinnie” age fifty-senen, of Baltimore, Maryland was born to Mary Louise Griffin on August 22, 1952. Cinnie departed from us on August 7, 2010.

Cinnie was born and resided her entire life in Baltimore City, where she also received her education.

Cinnie worked for several jobs over the years and was most fulfilled while working at the Mountain Manor Treatment Center.

Cinnie enjoyed spending time with her family and friends, especially her grandchildren. She also took pleasure in attending NA meeting where she became acquainted with many dear friends. She always found time to encourage those with whom she came in contact with.

In her spare time, you could always find Cinnie listening to her favorite songs that she always referred to as her “Oldies but Goodies”.

Cinnie leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Mary Louise Griffin; son Damon Montague; daughter-in-law, Lisha Montague; four grandsons, Darius, Qortez, Tavon and Malik; granddaughter, Enara; five sisters, Charlene, Gayle, Jessie, Rhonda and Tanya; three brothers, Floyd, Glen, and Mavin; three brother-in-law, John, Lionel, and Willie: lifelong friend, Antionella and Brenda:

and a host of nieces, nephews and other loved ones.
