

Cynthia Lafonda Jones

May 3, 1951 - January 19, 2014

Cynthia Lafondra Jones, daughter of the late Willie and Thelma Jones was born May 3, 1951 in Washington DC. She departed this life January 19, 2014 at Northwest Hospital in Randallstown, MD.

She received her education at Anacostia High School in Southeast, DC. In her youth she was a regular on the channel 14 "WOOK" TV hit show: Teenarama Dance Party. Cynthia was a great hand dancer and stylish dresser. She was known for her collection of the popular "19's Miller" shoes that she loved and often wore with a matching handbag. She worked for the federal government 30+ years retiring as a Contract Specialist. In 2001, she moved to Randallstown, worked part time for Food Lion as a baker/deli associate, under the supervision of her favorite manager Roslyn "Roz" Sellman, who often kept her in line by saying "okay Ms. Cynthia not today". Affectionately referred to by all (co workers and customers) as "Ms. Cynthia", she was respected and well liked! One of her greatest joys was talking about her son, his smile and how much she missed the little boy in him.

Cynthia was funny, endearing and thoughtful. Cynthia is loved and will be greatly missed.

She leave to mourn her son Joseph R. Washington, one grand-daughter Dominique, one great grand-son Malachi, one sister Ta Loria (Richard) one niece Ta Loris (Dennis) & three children, one aunt Jacqueline (Joe) & three daughters, Uncles: Apostle Manning (United House of Prayer Washington DC) Robert (Germany) Don (California), and Vernon Jones (North Carolina) (& their wives), her favorite cousin Darryl, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

linn & family - February 04, 2014 at 10:01 AM

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death can be hard to cope with. Fortunately, God promises to rid the earth of all sickness, suffering, and death (Revelation 21:4). May this bring you comfort in this time of need.

JB - January 29, 2014 at 07:14 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

Condolences to the Family of Cynthia LaFonda Jones. May the God of peace help you all to endure at this very difficult time in life. In your Bible at John 5:28-29, Jesus tell us there will be a time when we will see our loved ones again. Until then rest assured this promise will occur and also cherish the memories you have of Cynthia.

My sister, my friend with so many years lost due to the age difference. we made our older lives together with consideration of each other. The near last of your words were "We really like each other. my response " you are my only sister and we have each other. I'm here now and always". Cynthia had a lot of good friends that she was separated from due to the different opportunities that life offered them. I used to tell her try a new city or town. It took a lot of changes to get her in Randallstown with me, after getting here she again had her own independence with life. I respected that, but after it all WE were sisters never allowing NO ONE to interfere with the bond that had been created at birth. She has a son who is on the cover page of the program (he was her life).I took her remains to Virginia for him to have his last visit, viewing his mother and we all cried. life has it's bad side "Why Me- Why Us". I thank all that have Cynthia in their prayers, please pray for joseph and I.

To my lovely God Mother Cynthia, I miss you immensely.

*I will always remember the joyful moments we shared.
You were like a mother to me, you were always there.
I only wish I had enough time to tell you how much I truly cared.*

*I love you and promise to never forget the things you tough me:
Bravery, Pride and the Lords Pray*

*So for now, farewell my God Mother, for this is not the end.
Someday in heaven our paths shall cross again.*

*Love Always,
Your God Daughter
