

Cynthia Jordan

December 31, 1962 - August 21, 2024

Cynthia Denise Jordan was born December 31, 1962 in Patterson, New Jersey. She departed this life on August 21, 2024, at God Samaritan Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland.

Cynthia grew up in Baltimore where she attended public schools. She graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. She was always interested in the healing arts, so she attended the Medix School where she became a certified/register dental assistant and later completed studies at Maryland General Hospital School of Radiology. She received a bachelor's degree from the University of Baltimore where she majored in Health Systems Management. Cynthia worked as an x-ray and computed tomography tech at Maryland General Hospital (University of Maryland Hospital) for more than thirty years.

She was a member of New Friendship Baptist Church. She has been a serious student of the Holy Bible for many years. God stored a wealth of knowledge in her and she was a walking Bible reference, she also enjoyed traveling and was often on a plane zooming off to various locations Chelsea and a son Maurice, three grandchildren Maurice Jr. Harlem and Pheonix a sister, Sherri (her oldest sister Pamela preceded her in death) three brothers Willie (Michael), Louise Jr. and Duane (Tony) and a host of other family and friends

We Love you, Cynthia. Rest in peace
