

Cynthia L. Felix

October 2, 1950 - October 21, 2009

CYNTHIA LORETTA FELIX was born to the late Alexander G. Colvin and the late Bessie Robinson Colvin on October 2, 1950, in Fort Meade, Maryland. On October 21, 2009 she heard her heavenly Father call and answered. Cynthia's Christian education started at an early age at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church. As a young adult she was a member of Berea Lutheran Church and later joined New Psalmist Baptist Church. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System graduating from Patterson High School in 1968. Cynthia continued her education by attending the Maryland Institute of Art, earning several credits. In 1995 Cynthia was joined in marriage to Wilson Felix of Port de Prince, Haiti. Cynthia was employed by Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, in telecommunications. During the various transitions of the company and her promotion she retired after thirty-seven years of service. Also she had employment with Zales Jewelers in Baltimore, the Rock Hill Public School District as a substitute teacher, Hancock Fabric, and as a licensed bartender. Over the years Cynthia received many diplomas, certificates and awards. She received diplomas for fashion merchandising, journalism, and short story writing; certification for pearl and bead stringing, jewelers-stone setting, bartending, and master gardener from Clemson University. She was a distinguished member of the International Society of Poets, a lifetime member of the International Freelance Photographers receiving awards from both organizations. In 2003 she moved to Rock Hill, South Carolina and became an active member in the community. Cynthia was a very independent free spirit. She was adventurous and traveled to many places. She leaves to cherish her memory: sister, Hazel Maddox, Andera Colvin and Alexis Perkins; brother, Benjamin Colvin; sister-in-law, Shelia Colvin; brother-in-law, Daniel Maddox; nieces, Keisha Maddox, Kendra Colvin, Danyelle Maddox, Kele Lassiter and Renee Felton; nephews, Benjamin Felton, Kareem Colvin and Brian Colvin; nine great-nieces and seven great-nephews; aunts, Evelyn Barnes, Ola Jackson, Inell Colvin and Toni Colvin; uncles, William Colvin and Dr. Ernest Colvin all of Baltimore, Maryland; special cousin, Helen Simms of Rock Hill, South Carolina; a multitude of cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to express my sympathy to the Felix family. The untimely death of a loved one can be painful and difficult to bear; that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 states, "many asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ To The Felix Family: I wish to express my condolence for the loss of your love one. During times like these, hearts are filled with grief and pain. However, please find comfort in Jehovah God's promise found in the Bible at Revelation chapter 21, verse 4. It reads: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May God comfort you during these difficult times.##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##

“ I wish to convey my condolences to the Felix family at this time. Losing a loved one in death is so hard to come to terms with, but it's something we all have to face sooner or later. As a friend of mine once said, if you live long enough in this world it will bring you to your knees, and that is such a true statement. With all the crime and violence, the hunger, the sickness, the loss of income, the homelessness, the terrorism; we all are going through it in one way or another. But nevertheless, there is a rainbow after the storm, because God promises an end to all of these things that cause us so much pain. 2nd Peter 3:13 for instance promises: "But there are new heavens and a new earth in which we are awaiting, and in these righteousness is to dwell. Psalm 37:9-11 lets us know, "And just a little while longer and the wicked one will be no more, and you will certainly give attention to his place and he will not be. "But the meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace. As for the dead, John 5:28,29 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus's) voice and come out." May you be comforted by these wonderful promises, and may your precious memories of Cynthia help you to endure.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
