

Cynthia Ann Oliver

August 20, 1939 - December 26, 2020

Mrs. Cynthia A. Goodman Oliver of Richmond, VA, entered eternal rest on Saturday, December 26, 2020 at the age of 81. Cynthia, affectionately known as "Ann", was born to the late Margaret C. Logan-Goodman and Ernest C. Goodman on August 20, 1939 in Richmond, VA.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband of 24 years, Mr. John V. Oliver. She is survived by her son, Christopher Oliver; sister Elaine Goodman Suttle; niece, Michele Goodman; nephew, Darrell C. Goodman; two great-nephews, Stafford and Chaz Goodman. She also leaves behind her devoted cousin, Mike Lacks and wife Berlette Lacks; cousins, the Fowler family and the Griffin Family; amongst a host of other relatives and friends.

Cynthia graduated from Maggie L. Walker High School and furthered her education at the Smith-Madden Business College. She served twenty plus years within the Federal Government and within the Social Security Administration. It was there she befriended lifelong friends Cynthia Washington, Carolyn Rice and Edith Carter. There are so many others that could be recognized but please know that she loved you all the same.

At an early age, Mrs. Cynthia Oliver confessed Christ and became a faithful and devoted member of the Fifth Baptist Church. Cynthia was a passionate philanthropist. She was a generous contributor of scholarships to students furthering their education.

“ We are truly sadden and shocked today. We just found out we have lost a dear friend and another one of God's angels. Ms. Cynthia you will be miss by many and all of the Simpson's family. My mom introduce me to you over 40 years ago and you have always been there with encouraging words and a cheerleader in our lives. I know you will be in Heaven with your dear friend Kate and I can only image how long you two will be chatting. We all will miss you dearly. Pat, Ebony, Antoine, Jessica, Anthony and Valerie Simpson.
