“ My deepest condolences and sympathies to your family for the loss of Ms. Cynthia. Please continue to pray for strength and hold on to God's promises of a future when death will be eliminated and reversed. (John 5:28, 29) .??.Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.?.?

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am sure you have many fine memories of your loved one that will bring you a measure of comfort during these trying times. Our loving heavenly Father is the "God of all comfort" and he can and will help you through this difficult time because "he cares for you." (1 Peter 5:7)

“ I am truly sorry for your loss of Ms. Cynthia. Please continue to rely on Almighty God and persevere in prayer which will give you the benefit of him calling you to peace. May the excelling peace of Almighty God guard your hearts. "Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." -- Phillipians 4:6,7

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

I am truly saddened by Cynthia's death. Cynthia was more than just a friend, she was an amazing person. She was always so kind and considerate to us that we always welcomed seeing her at every opportunity. Her passing will not only leave a void in our lives but in the hearts of everyone who knew her. Cynthia's memory will always remain deep within our hearts with deepest sympathy ,Toni and Elliott.
