

Cynthia Stricklin

July 9, 1946 - January 23, 2007

Cynthia C. Stricklin, daughter of Gladys T. Watkins and the late Donald Nolon, was raised by Herman Robinson and Grace Robinson. Cynthia was born on July 9, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on January 23, 2007 from natural causes. She received her education from Edmondson High School. Shortly after the age of seventeen she dedicated her life to her family, by making sure her siblings were well taken care of. She made her family her life's dedication. She married the late Samuel Stricklin who served time in the Navy. Cynthia was a fun and loving woman who loved unconditionally. Her love was a signature of her devotion. She leaves to mourn: mother, Gladys T. Watkins; brother, Nelson Robinson; daughter, Antoinette R. Tolkson; grandchildren, Brittany Jackson, James Moore Jr., Derrick Moore and Lamont Jackson; beloved partner, Roy Hutcherson and a host of devoted family and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. There is much hope for our dead loved ones. The Bible declares- "There is going to be a resurrection."- (Acts 24:15) The Bible reveals that this will take place in a new world with the hope of no more death,sickness, sorrow or pain.(See Revelation 21:3-5) It is my hope that you receive much comfort and strength from these loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ May you have peace and comfort from our loving heavenly father who comforts us in all of our tribulations. 2nd Cor. 1:3-5. one day the pain and sorrow of this life will be past. Jehovah will create a new world of peace in harmony with his purpose, and all obedient mankind will be able to live life to the full in peace and security, without the threat of death hanging over our heads. 2nd Peter 3,13 says, "There are new heavens and a new earth, in which we are awaiting, and in these righteousness is to dwell. There will be no more terror or fear in the earth at that time, because Micah 4,4 says, "Each one will be able to sit under his vine and under his fig tree, and there will be no one making them tremble; for the very mouth of Jehovah of armies has spoken it." Then the dead will rise again according to Daniel 12,2, which says, "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up. Please be comforted in knowing that one day Cynthia will live again, and all sorrow will be gone. May those bible thoughts help you to cope with her loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Stricklin's ! I would like to take this opportunity to express my condolences to u all. Death breaks the family circle when it hits. We all have lost some one in death and know the feeling and pain and hurt and grives. We can come to grips in time with these feeling. The bible helps so much as 2 Cro.3:1 say that we will have comfort from our heavenly father and our last enemy death will be brought to nothing as 1 Cor.15:26 say. That will be a great time to look forward to very soon, when no one will ever feel the effects of death again. May all the cherished memories of Cynthia stay close to your hearts . Sincerely, Lillian.##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
