

Cynthia Weathington

November 1, 1963 - June 17, 2025

Cynthia Weathington, affectionately known as “Cimp”. Daughter of the late Dorethea Ivory and Leamon Weathington was born on November 1, 1963, in Baltimore, Maryland. Cynthia’s soul peacefully transitioned to its eternal resting place on June 17, 2025, at the University of Maryland Upper Chesapeake Medical Center.

Cynthia received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, where she attended Patterson High School, Automation Academy, and Coppin State University.

Early on, Cynthia accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior and was baptized alongside her siblings, she later fellowshiped at the Master’s Plan Worship Center. Cynthia was a professional Jack of all trades. She was a former employee at The Baltimore Sun for several years; she later became a property manager with a specialty in data entry and management. Cynthia was also a self-taught hairstylist in her free time.

Cynthia enjoyed cooking on the grill, family gatherings, and spending time with her grandchildren. Cynthia enjoyed snapping her fingers and two-stepping at every event. The “Follow Me”, was sure to get her on the dance floor. She also enjoyed listening to gospel music. Her favorite song was “The Lord Will Fix It for Me”.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Gary; niece, Taquita; nephew, Darien; and best friend Leslie.

She leaves behind to cherish her memories: three sisters Barbara Clanton (Shelton), Angelina Tabron, and Octavia Weathington; three brothers: Kilroy Tabron, Eddie Ivory, Jr. (Annette), Christopher Ivory (Darlene); three daughters; Lakeia, Shatreese (Vincent), and Keisha (Clyde); seven grandchildren: Shaylin, Keiasia, Kamiya, Kameron, Khyon, Khaylee, and Kendrick; one greatgrandchild: Legend; twenty nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
