

Cynthia L. Wilson

June 12, 1954 - November 8, 2023

Cynthia Lavonne Wilson, affectionally known as Cindy, was born June 12, 1954, in Baltimore, Maryland, daughter of the late Colbert A. and Lorraine E. Davis. She departed this life suddenly on November 8, 2023.

Cindy, as she was affectionally known, received her education in the Baltimore City Public school system, graduating from Douglas High School. Upon graduation, she attended Baltimore City Community College.

On September 13, 1996, she married the love of her life, Owen B. Wilson.

Cindy was employed with The Johns Hopkins Hospital for thirty-five years. She retired in June 2016. She loved family gatherings, R&B music and watching her favorite team the Baltimore Ravens. Cindy was a no non-sense person she believed in telling it like it is without hesitation. She was a loving aunt who assisted with childcare duties.

Cindy accepted Christ as her personal Savior.

She is preceded in death by her only beloved son, Roderick Camphor. She was blessed with a grandson, Roderick Rodney Camphor whom she adored. She was overjoyed with the birth of her great -granddaughter Milan Camphor. She brought her so much joy and happiness.

After a brief illness, on November 8, 2023, God in his perfect wisdom sent an angel down to quietly whisper to Cynthia Wilson, "Come home".

Cynthia leaves to cherish her memory; devoted husband, Owen B. Wilson, grandson, Roderick Camphor, (Precious), great granddaughter, Milan, stepson, Bobby Wilson (Joann), devoted sister, Patricia Rogers (Kevin Sr.), sister-in-law, Carol Meekins (Jackie), brother, Wayne Davis (Betty), brother, Eric Davis (Pamela), brother, Johnathan Inman, brother, Colbert Davis Jr., nieces, nephews and a host of family and friends.

Two very special and devoted friends, September Dobb and Elaine Wills.
