

Cynthia Vandraus Womack

June 7, 1965 - July 7, 2011

CYNTHIA VANDRAUS was born on June 7, 1965 to Barbara Ann Vandraus and the late Willie Vandraus in Baltimore, MD.

Cynthia and her family home church was Charity Baptist located at Gay Street and Old Town Mall.

As Cynthia continued to grow she visited many other churches.

Cynthia attended Madison Square Elementary #26, Lombard Junior High School and Graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School.

Cynthia was married to the late David L. Womack.

Cynthia was hard-working young lady. She has many friends, but her husband was her best friend, Cynthia was lovely mother, wife and friend, She was very fashionable with an outgoing spirit and and great person2ality and she would help anyone. These last couple of years and months have been hard on her. So please show her and her loved ones and yourself respect and peace.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three sons, James Lamont Brinkley, David Jamal Womack and DaShawn Womack; mother, Barbara Ann Vandraus; three sisters, Elaine Lee, Joyce (Shirley) Vandraus and Bernice Vandraus; aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ What i will never forget is the day she told us she was having a baby, we was in group, we were more excited, i think then she was, now everybody wanted to have a baby, so Cindy said, yall old a-- women need get somewhere and sit down, we all had a big laugh... i was the one who gave her the baby shower, i still have the a candle shaped like a baby carriage, it's blue and white, she wore this silly hat we had made from a paper plate with all this stuff hanging of it... as i write this my heart is heavy... I'm Penny Wooten, and i will always remember her and the good time we shared, I LOVE U, CINDY !

She was a wonderful person to be around. I loved my aunt so much, she had this energy that you can't explain. Aunt Cynthia was always a happy person even when things occurred in life that would make anybody feel down she kept her head up and had a positive attitude. She will be missed very much please keep my family in your prayers. Thank You
