Cyrane Sheila McDonald was born April 19, 1962 to the late Alice McDonald Boykin and Jack Framen, in Manhattan, New York. She departed this life suddenly on May 1, 2017.

She received her early education in New York, and after moving to Baltimore, Maryland, completed her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools System. Cyrane, affectionately known as Sheila to everyone, was employed at the Hilton Hotel in her early years, and later grew a passion to care and provide for others. Sheila enjoyed family gatherings and telling stories about the family history that would keep us laughing, but most of all she enjoyed time spent with her grandchildren.

She was preceded in death in death by her mother, Alice McDonald Boykin, and her grandson, Decorey Horne.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters, Ebony, Tiffany and Latoya; one son, Leroy; two sisters, Christina and Annie; a special cousin she loved as a sister, Denise; one brother, Dwayne; and a special cousin she loved as a brother, Anthony; eight grandchildren, Corey, Antonio, Dwayne, Paul, Sherman, Chase, Tajah, and Kennedy; four greatgrandchildren;

two aunts, two uncles and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends. She made numerous friends wherever she went and will be truly missed by all who knew what a devoted woman she was.
