

D'Andre E. McLaughlin

September 3, 1998 - October 10, 2017

D'ANDRE also known as Dee or Dre, as lovingly and fondly referred to by friends and family entered into this world as a bright light on September 3, 1998. Dawn S. Brown and Andre Mclaughlin were the two souls bless by God to receive this most wonderful miracle. Sadly, D'Andre departed this life suddenly and unexpectedly but not by chance because we know that God only calls the best. Dee answered the call to our father but not before leaving us all touched by his greatness.

Each and every person or situation that was ever graced by Dee's presence was so blessed because he was truly one of God's greatest masterpieces, a true prince of the Lord. Dee attended Baltimore City schools and always excelled in what he did. He graduated high school early out of Northwestern High and went on to Gain employment with the corporate giant Amazon in Maryland. Dee was excited at the thought of making his own money that he saved and saved and brought his own first car at the age of 18. He loved basketball and was a great player thanks to his father Andre who shared his love of the game with his son. He helped his mom and stepdad by taking his younger siblings to and from school each day. On his last day he made post birthday plans with his Aunt Teri and Dee also, took his mom Dawn. on a beautiful dinner and movie date. Dee was a quiet homebody whose smile could light up any room and whose laugh could melt any heart. He loved his family, basketball, his car, his games and his friends. He had a heart of gold and was always quick to help anyone who was in need.

He leaves to celebrate his life and cherish his memory: his mother, and father, Dawn S. Brown and Andre L. McLaughlin; his stepfather, Desmond A. Brown Sr.; brothers, Kendrick McLaughlin and Desmond A. Brown Jr.; sister Dylan L.A. Brown; great-grandmothers, Julia J. Straughter, Zenobia E. McLaughlin, Grandmother Zenobia B. McLaughlin; aunt/mother, Peggy Straughter; aunts, Terra Thomas, Laney Hines, Lacey Branch, Rosey Branch, Deneika and Shakarra Everett; uncles, Michael and Emmanuel; a host of cousins, great-aunts and uncles, extended family members, friends and acquaintances.
