

Da'Quan M. Lippman

December 20, 2004 - May 16, 2005

Da'Quan Maurice Lippman, son of Maurice Antonio Lippman and Danielle Denise Branch, was born on December 20, 2004 in Baltimore, Md. Da'quan departed this earth suddenly. The Lord called our little Da'quan home to be among the angels. Da'quan was a happy baby, always smiling, Mommy's little angel. He was affectionately known as "Nemo." Da'quan leaves to cherish his memory: his parents, Maurice Antonio Lippman and Danielle Denise Branch; grandparents, Robert Milton Branch Jr., Wallace Simms, Barbara Rayford; great-grandparents, James Dudley Jr., Maxine Dudley, Alice Rooks, Louise Branch and Robert Branch Sr.; five uncles, Robert Branch, Aaron Lippman, Dominique Branch, Davon Person, Danard Branch; three aunts, Aja Lewis, Donielle Branch and Deneen Branch; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I did not know your relative; however, I'm deeply saddened to hear about your loss. Death hurts us all even if our love one was sick or not. Please accept my condolences and may you find comfort in the scriptures in your time of grief. May you find comfort in knowing that God has given us a loving promise at John 5:28,29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life."##imported-begin##Sorry2Hear##imported-end##

“ Dear Family & Friends of Da'Quan, please accept my heartfelt sympathy for your great loss. As a mother I can only imagine your pain and grief. Life can be so uncertain and this enemy, death has no boundaries. It will take the young and the old no matter what race or stature in life. Anyone of us can fall victim to it at any time. Our loving Heavenly Father knows your pain. He too, lost His Only Begotten Son in death and this caused Him much sadness and pain. On the third day He resurrected Jesus and brought him back to heaven from which he had come from. What's comforting is that He promises to do the same for us. He promises to bring our loved ones back to us on earth from which we had come from. At Isaiah 26:19 it says, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!... This void, though great, is only temporary because Jehovah God promises that Da'Quan will live again. You won't have to die in order to see him again. No, he will be given back to you alive and well. You won't have to worry about losing him again because at Isaiah 25:8 God promises to "swallow up" death forever. I hope you can find much comfort in these scriptures knowing that the "God of comfort" is looking down on you waiting to bring your bundle back to you. Please compare these verses to your copy of the bible and see these wonderful truths firsthand. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, My heart truly goes out to you in this your time of sorrow. Losing someone in death can be hard but when it is a child it is truly harder. Please draw comfort from God's holy writings. He promises that death will be swallowed up forever (Isaiah 25:8,9). There is also going to be resurrection of the dead (Revelation 21:3,4). Also, earth will be transformed into a paradise as Jehovah God intended it to be when he created man (Psalm 37:10,11,29). Please be comforted by these scriptures especially the fact that you have the chance to see Da'Quan again. Again, I am truly sorry to hear of your loss. My prayers will be with you that you cope.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
