

Daffilyn Darnella Stokley

September 15, 1956 - February 5, 2002

Daffilyn Darnella Stokley, the daughter of Elviria and Thomas Reaves was born on September 21, 1956 in Elizabeth City, North Carolina. She relocated to Baltimore at 2 ½ years old. She departed this life suddenly on February 5, 2002. Darnella, as she was affectionately known, was a graduate of the Baltimore City Public Schools. She was employed with the John Hopkins University for several years. She loved to cook, and was a great cook. Darnella enjoyed decorating her home and was a faithful and loving mother. She shared a special relationship and was a faithful companion to Joseph Green, Sr. for 22 years. They shared a special bond. She will be greatly missed. Darnella leaves to cherish her memory her parent, Elviria And Thomas Reeves, two children Andrea Stokley and Joseph Green, III, a devoted and loving companion Joseph Green, Sr., grandmother, Rosetta Stokley of Elizabeth City, N.C., two aunts, Barbara Moore, Angela McCullen; one uncle, Robert McCullen, three great aunts, Louise Williams, Emma Jane Boyd, and Irene Williams of Elizabeth City, N.C., and a host of other relatives and friends. "A MOTHER LOVE" A Mother's Love is something that no one can explain. It is made of deep devotion, sacrifice and pain. It is endless and unselfish and enduring. Come what may; For nothing can destroy it or take that love away. It is patient and forgiving, when others are forsaking, and it never fails or is faultless even when the heart is breaking. It believes beyond believing, when the world around condemns. And it glows with all the beauty of the sweetest and brightest gems.

“ Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
