

Daisy B. Gillard

July 24, 1914 - October 6, 2001

Daisy Berry Gillard fought the good fight and made a victorious triumphant entrance into the presence of God on Saturday, October 6, 2001. Daisy, youngest child of the late William and Gladys Berry, was born July 24, 1914, in Darlington County, South Carolina. She received her education in the public school system of Darlington County. After a beautiful courtship, she married David Gillard on December 5, 1939. In 1942, she and David relocated to Baltimore, Maryland in search of a better quality of life. David and Daisy had a long loving marriage of 43 years. She was a supportive and devoted wife, and a loving mother. Shortly after settling in East Baltimore, the Lord led David and Daisy to join the Fountain Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Dennis Barrow. From the onset, Daisy started to do the Lord's work, attending Sunday School, assisting with the children in Vacation Bible School, and the Baptist Training Union (BTU). She sang with various choirs, her first love, and served with many auxiliaries and boards while raising seven children in the precepts of the Lord. Daisy was blessed to have served in the office of President of the Senior Missionaries for twenty-five years in total. Daisy, deeply rooted in the "word", was forever counseling her children, family and friends and fellow church members on "what saith the Lord", and many have been truly blessed by advice. Daisy and her dear friend, Sister Olivia Brown, received instruction from the Lord to further their Christian ministry as a duet, after singing with the "Reid Gospel Singers" for many years.
