

Daisy Brooks

January 5, 1925 - August 15, 2009

Mrs. Daisy Brooks departed this life at her home, after a lengthy illness. She was surrounded by family and friends. The daughter of the late William and Clara Dockins was born in Richmond Virginia on January 5, 1925. At an early age the family later relocated to Baltimore, Maryland where Daisy was educated in the Baltimore City School Systems. In her early years, Daisy met and fell in love with Joseph Leo Brooks. The couple were united in holy matrimony on July 20, 1946. From this union 10 children were born. Daisy was a loving wife and mother. She loved the Lord; she loved her church, St. Pius V and St. Peter Claver. She also love singing on the church choir, and her services with the Knights of St. Johns Ladies Auxiliary #219, the Blessed Mary Sodality, and the Shining Stars. Daisy found relaxation with many hobbies, sewing, and music, dancing and traveling to name a few. Daisy leaves a legacy of cherished memories to her adoring and devoted husband of 63 years, Joseph, her children Gloria Davis, Agnes Griffin, Christine Tillman, Charles Brooks, Patricia Johnson and Sandra Titus. Her sons in law, Buster Davis, Michael Griffin and Dwight Tillman, and Daughter in Law, Hazetta Brooks. Her 25 grandchildren, and host of great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren and great-great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends. Daisy had 2 sons and 2 daughters who preceded her in death.

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's word refers to it as our enemy. May you take comfort in knowing that very soon,our loving Heavenly Father promises us that He will bring the last enemy to nothing(1 Corinthians 15:26)May the peace of Christ be with the entire Brooks family in your hour of need.##imported-begin##Mary E Cromwell##imported-end##

“ Since death is through a man, Adam resurrection of the dead is also through a man Jesus Christ. For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive. 1 Corinthians 15:21, 22##imported-begin##Marilyn##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,19). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Ms. Brooks' family and friends. The loss of a loved one can be painful and difficult to bear that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But God is going to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1 Corinthians 15:26, Revelation 21:4. Yes, these are the promises of God who cannot lie-Titus 1:2. I hope you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
