DO NOT WEEP, MY CHILDREN Do not stand here and weep for me, I am not here. I no longer sleep, I'm part of the sky. I am a thousand winds that blow through the air. Do not weep, my children, I am always in your prayers I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning hush I am the swift uplifting rush I am the brightest star that shines at night. Do not weep my children Do not stand here and cry, I am not here, I did not die.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ To the family of Ms Daisy Bruce. I am sorry to read about the loss of your loved one. The pain is tremendous even with the passage of time. There are scriptures in the Bible to help provide relief of grief and distress. Please read Ps 65:2 that reads "The Hearer of prayers a source of comfort in times of grief and distress.

“ My heartfelt Condolences on the loss of your dear Daisy. Please take comfort in Gods' promise to bring back our dead loved ones. This is no mere fantasy. Our Heavenly Father Resurrected eight persons in Bible times, and had these events witnessed, and documented in His Word The Bible. This being a fore gleam of His ability and desire to do so in the near future (Mark 5:38-43). Jesus Himself speaks of a global Resurrection at John 5:28-29, where it reads in part, "time coming, in which all those in memorial tombs will hear His voice, and come out...". This will be to a Paradise earth, where sorrow, sickness and death will be a thing of the past (Psalms 37:9-11,29 ,Isaiah 33:24, Rev. 21:4). This is what Daisy will awaken to. Until that wonderful day, may your treasured memories of her and this reliable hope, sooth some of the grief you are now experiencing. God is not imperfect like His children. He always keeps His promises!(Titus 1:2) Mrs. D. Ward in Michigan For reliable Christian information on how to deal with the death of a loved one visit www.jw.org
