

Daisy Chapman

August 24, 1918 - March 6, 2006

Daisy V. Chapman, daughter of the late Robert Lewis and Willie Mae Lewis was born on August 24, 1918 in Warrenton, N.C. She lovingly said “Good Bye” to all those she loved on March 6, 2006. She attended school in Warrenton, N.C. then moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1951. She was loved by all of her employers. Her soft and radiant personality casted a glow on everyone she met. Her motto was “If you look hard enough, you will always find the good in people.” You could search high and low and never find anyone with an unkind word to say about her. She was married to the late Edward Bryant for 28 years. She married Albert Chapman in 1980. They were married for 26 years. Daisy was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. She had an entrepreneurial spirit and spent many summers selling frozen cups. Daisy had a deep and personal relationship with God. She attended The World wide Church of God for most of her adult life, until her illness made her unable to attend. Daisy leaves to cherish her memories: her husband Albert Chapman of Baltimore, Md.; her children, James Lewis of N.C., Barbara Lewis Crews of Detroit, Mich., Betty Applewhite of N.C., Paul Bryant, Russell Bryant, Mattie Drummond, Hazel Moody, Edwina Earle, Clarence Edward Bryant (deceased), Anthony Bryant and Tina Russum. Adopted sons, Robert Applewhite and Jesse Moody. A very special friend also adopted son Ezekiel Reid. All our thanks and love for his devotion to our mother. She also leaves to cherish a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ I wish to extend my deepest sympathy on the death of your loved one. May the sure hope of the resurrection comfort you as you reflect on the memories you shared with Mrs. Chapman. Acts:24,15 tells us that there will be a resurrection of the righteous, as well as the unrighteous". So all in God's memory who have died have the opportunity to live again forever. I hope these scriptual thought sustain you and help you to endure.##imported-begin##R

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
