

Daisy Lee Dawson

October 14, 1929 - March 11, 2016

DAISY L. DAWSON, daughter of the late Robert and Edna Graham, was born on October 14, 1929 in Evergreen, North Carolina. After a lengthy illness, Daisy departed this life on March 11, 2016 at home, surrounded by her family, at the age 86

Daisy was educated in the North Carolina Public School System. She later relocated to Baltimore, Maryland in the 1940's where she married John L. Dawson, her husband of forty two years. Who preceded her in death.

From this union, seven children were born, four daughters, Brenda (preceded her in death), Yvonne, Theresa and Michele Dawson; and three sons, John, Jr. Thomas and Michael Dawson, who both preceded her in death.

Daisy was a long time employee for the City of Baltimore . She held positions with Carroll Mansion the Washington Monument as well as with the Peal Museum here in Baltimore . After retiring from the city, Daisy worked as a housekeeper for many years.

Daisy was long time member of the Good Shepard Baptist Church, where she served on the Outreach committee. She attended services regularly until her health no longer permitted.

Daisy, affectionately known as "Snook" was a 'Mom" to all the neighborhood kids. Daisy loved spending time with family and friends. She enjoyed knitting and going to the casino. She also was a member of a women's social club known as the girlfriend Pleasure Club frequently attending and hosting events.

She leaves to cherish her memory; her four children , John, Jr. (Joyce); Yvonne, Theresa and Michele Dawson; brother, Timothy Graham; ten grandchildren (Thomas Miller preceded her in death); thirteen great-grandchildren; six great great-grandchildren; godson, Dubias Ashley; goddaughter; Lori Giles; a very special friend Jean Brockington; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
