

Daisy M. Nelson

June 4, 1928 - December 15, 2018

Daisy Mae Evans Nelson departed this life on December 15, 2018. She was born on June 4, 1928 in Sumter, South Carolina to the Pearl S. White and the late George Lowery. The rich heritage of family life which she experienced was further nurtured by the late Willie, Sr. and Daisy Scriven Evans.

Daisy attended Lincoln High School in Sumter, SC. She grew up attending Jehovah Missionary Baptist Church. She later attended cosmetology school after moving to Baltimore, MD. While there she worked as an industrial worker, as well as a cosmetologist with her Aunt Mary. She also worked as a baker in several school cafeterias in the Baltimore School System, from which she retired.

Daisy had many hobbies that included sewing, cooking, and showing. She also enjoyed laughing, talking, and corresponding and engaging with family and friends. Daisy was a servant of GOD and knew that she had access to HIM through the Holy Spirit. She often demonstrated this by saying, "Child, we have to pray," or by ending conversations with, "You pray for me and I'll pray for you." Daisy was an active member of Gospel Baptist Tabernacle and enjoyed her Senior Sunday School Class and singing on the choir.

In addition to her parents, Daisy was preceded in death by her son, Frederick Evans, her daughter, Bettye Nelson Frisco; two sisters, Thelma E. Brown and Janie E. Brown; and six brothers, Levi White, Millard White, Harold Scriven, George Lowery, Jr., Eddie Lowery, and James Lowery.

Memories of Daisy will be cherished by her grandchildren, Keita (Jocelyn) Evans, Kenya (Tamika) Evans, Tara D. Evans, and Sheklin Dixon; four brothers Robert L. White, Willie (Bonnie) Evans, Jr. Lawrence (Angie) Lowery and Jerome (Michelle) Lowery; three sisters Berneatha (Roosevelt) Williams, Sylvia (Robert) Greene, and Elaine (Jimmy) Grant; two daughters-in-law, Minnie W. Evans and Gladys White; a son-in-law, Aaron Frisco; seven great-great-grandchild; special and devoted cousins, Mamie McCullum, Ida Kelly, Terry Gathers, and Celestine Harris; and host of other relatives and friends.

“ *It's with great sadness to hear of Ma Daisy's passing. Her daughter Bettye and I were close friends since high school. Ma Daisy often made so many outfits for us a youngsters
One of my most cherished conversations was on the day I got my Medicare Card I never heard her laugh so and telling me who would have thought i'd be here to talk about getting old yet here are. She was a lovely person who loved the Lord and would tell you so anytime or anywhere.
Rest My Friend In Heavenly Peace
Love you,
Sheron Matthews.*
