

Daisy Oliver Stone

October 24, 1922 - March 27, 2015

On Friday, March 27, 2015, at the age of 92, God called to rest Daisy Oliver Stone after a lengthy illness.

Daisy Oliver Stone was born on October 24, 1922, in Clarendon County, South Carolina, to the late Mr. George Oliver and Annie Robinson Oliver Brown. From this union, twelve children were born.

Daisy attended the Public Schools of Clarendon County. She accepted Christ at an early age. She was an active member of the Historical Liberty Hill A.M.E. Church in St. Paul, South Carolina. After relocating to Richmond, Virginia, she joined Hood Temple A.M.E. Zion Church. Daisy was a member of the Women's Home & Overseas Missionary Society and a Stewardess in the Church.

Daisy started her working career as a Domestic worker for the very loving and caring family of Dr. Broaddus D. Massey and Mr. & Mrs. William Carr. After leaving their employment, she found her calling doing what she loved best, cooking. She joined the staff of Richmond Public Schools as a Food Service Worker, where she remained until retirement.

Daisy was formally married to the late Jefferson Stone, Sr.

She was preceded in death by her son, Jefferson Stone ,Jr.,daughter, Georgia Lee Hall, grandson Michael Craig, brothers, Sam, Willie, and Bertie Oliver,Jane Stokes,Elise Ragin Sarah Thomas,and Annie Mae Richburg.

She leaves to mourn three sons, Willie Huggins(Barbara)of Philadelphia, PA, Nathaniel, Sr. and David Stone(Paula) of Richmond, VA, and one devoted daughter and caretaker Hester Sottile. She leaves to mourn twenty-one grandchildren, and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, one devoted David Rivers.

Daisy was well known for her delicious homemade desserts and many other things.
