“ Weeks has past and I'm praying my days get easier. Our son talks about you everyday. Everything about you I love and appreciate. You had such a big heart and you understood me and I understood you. I miss you so much!! I understand God makes no mistakes, but my heart is still broken. However, I know your free and sleeping in peace. I aslo know that you have no more worries, no more sorrows, no more pain, no more sickness you're free baby 😭😭 I love you always and forever! 😊

“ Remembering my nephew and still saddened by his passing. My deepest regards to his mom and dad as well as our family as we all deal with this unexpected loss. We know to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord, but heaven knows we miss having him here with us. A vacant seat remains permanently unfilled, a hole in our hearts that seems far from closing, a voice silenced by death, and a loved one that left up way too soon. Rest well Daivon and enjoy eternal life with our the God of our salvation and the host of loved ones with which you again dwell. Until we meet again, good night and look forward to the reunion in the morning. Love Eternal - Uncle Roger

“ Dear Family:
I cannot express how sorry I am for your loss. Of course there are no words that can comfort you or provide you with any sense of why this chose to happen to you all. All I can say is that right now, you will need each other more than ever. I will continue to ask God to wrap his arms around you during your time of grief.

My prayers are with you...

“ May the promise found at Isaiah 25:8 bring some comfort in the death of Daivon Evans. "He will swallow up death forever. The Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces." Just imagine no more pain and grief due to the death of a love one! By means of the Kingdom that Jesus Christ taught us to pray for, God will remove sickness, old age and death from the human family.
