

Dale Norris Greene

January 4, 1962 - January 23, 2022

Dale Norris Greene, age 60, of Richmond, Virginia was born on January 4, 1962 to the late mother, Crasty Johnson.

Dale N. Greene was blessed with multiple talents like carpentry, technology, philosophy, and automotive knowledge to name a few. Dale was an intelligent man who took any opportunity to further his knowledge on any subject or field. Days before his passing, Dale was practicing how to master the skill of being a violinist. Dale was a loving family man, who adored and cherished his loved ones. Dale was thoughtful, patient, kind, comical, passionate, motivated and some will say a true go-getter. Dale was truly an angel on Earth.

Dale first started his walk with Christ at Manna Christian Fellowship in Richmond, Virginia in the early 1990's where he got saved. Dale was honored with a Certificate of Achievement in 1993 by Founder and President Bishop W. Wellington Boone, Executive Vice President Garland H. Hunt and Director Cynthia Ellenwood. Dale stayed a member with MCF for over 10 years, where he met his former wife of 11 years, Chermine. Dale first started mentoring young men through the organization Athletes for Jesus. Later in years, Dale continued to mentor and counsel under privileged young men and male inmates. He continued his independent ministry by preaching in the greater Richmond area and across the country within different communities. While continuing his fellowship he stayed with his former partner of 13 years, Karen.

Dale obtained his CDL's in 2019 at John Tyler Community College, where he worked for Bells and Lowe until his departure date from Earth. In his 60 years of living, Dale established a unique style of leadership in the community of exceptional character. Looking at Dale's life, we find comfort in so many rich experiences and loving moments. He is loved by many and will never be forgotten.

On Sunday, January 23rd, 2022, the angel of the Lord descended from heaven and carried Dale Norris Greene to his eternal home of rest. He is survived by his daughter, Asia; granddaughter, Alecia; sisters, Lisha, Crasty, Pendelope, and Amanda; brother, Travis; sister-in-law, Gerladine; 7 nieces and nephews; 9 great nieces and nephews; childhood friends, Robert and wife Melanie, Wayne and friend Sherron; and other family and friends that loved him so.
