

Damon Fernell Franklin

April 27, 1976 - July 20, 2022

DAMON FERNELL FRANKLIN, the son of Harold Fernell "Bubby" Franklin and Judith "Judy" Gambrill, was born on April 27, 1976 in Howard County, MD. He passed to a new life, suddenly, on July 20, 2022.

As a child, Damon was curious, friendly and very mannerly. These attributes followed him into adulthood.

Damon attended Baltimore, MD and Atlantic, GA public schools. Free spirited and quite intelligent, he was placed in advanced classes for the "Gifted and Talented" as a Baltimore City school students. These courses of study allowed his entrance, at the age of sixteen, into a "Work-Study" internship at the Baltimore City Chief Medical Examiner's Office. The opportunity truly piqued his interest in the field of science.

Experiencing early health issues which prevented him from full-time work, Damon's ingenuity created self-employment as a local landscaper. His expertise was evident in the beautiful lawns of the neighbors he provided services to.

Although Damon was challenged with struggles, he never dismissed his attention to the Grace and Mercy God supplied in his life. He was faithful to his belief, keeping fellowship as a member of the Body of Christ.

Damon was predeceased by his devoted father, Harold Fernell Franklin.

He is lovingly survived by: his son, Tyrek Franklin; mother, Judy Gambrill Elam (Lacey); sister, Rashika Franklin; brothers, Reginal J. Tunstall and Joshua Long; nephew, Zamir Long; aunts, Patricia Gambrill Davis, Joyce Graham, Addie Johnson, Regina Brown, Linda Hampton, Sandra Weidman and Patricia Hodge Gambrill; uncles, Ernest Gambrill Jr. and Harry Franklin; and a host of cousins and friends.

“ Judy I am sorry to read about your loss of your son. My prayers to you and family and all who knew and loved your son. May God's words in the Bible at Ps 34:18 provide you comfort. The scriptures tell us "HE" is near to those broken at heart, and those crushed in spirit HE saves. Peggy Jones-Land
