

Damon DeVal Tazewell

June 30, 1954 - January 12, 2011

DAMON D. TAZWELL, son of the late Monroe and Loretta Tazewell was born on June 30, 1954 in Little Rock, Arkansas. He departed this life on January 12, 2011 after a brief illness.

He received his education at Baltimore Polytechnic Institute in Baltimore, Maryland. Upon graduation, he attended Morgan State University where he graduated, with honors, with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Chemistry and obtained a coveted position at Rhom and Haas. He eventually received a position at MBNA where he received numerous awards. After retiring from a management position at MBNA, he gained employment with Arbitron.

Damon made numerous friends wherever he went. He was an excellent chef, a master gardener and he enjoyed listening to music. Damon was a genius and excelled at anything he attempted. He was a true friend and a devoted family man. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him.

He leaves to mourn: his sister, Munzio Tazewell; his niece, Star Tazewell; his nephew, Christian Kaikai; his godson, Kevin Lansdowne; best friend, Lance Bryton Lansdowne, Sr., and a host of other relatives and friends

We miss you Damon, more than words can say.
