

Dana Anthony Hawks

March 16, 1976 - February 13, 2006

Dana Anthony Hawks was born to Inez Green and Anthony Hawks on March 16, 1976. A lifelong resident of Baltimore, Maryland, he attended Baltimore City Public Schools. Dana, also known as "L.A.," was a very loving father to his two sons. At one time, he was the youngest of his cousins, on his mother's side, but he always made sure that his older cousins included him in everything. As he grew and matured, he continued to be a loyal and loving son, cousin, friend, nephew, brother and grandson. He had a very "laid-back" attitude and loved to play on his Play station, buy clothes and shoe, look at movies and watch TV. Dana had a great sense of humor and adored his family, His sister Asia remembers the many conversations that she had with him about her future and how he encouraged her to stay in school and pursue her goals. Dana is survived by his parents: two sons, Dana Hawks, Jr., and Da'Quan Hawks; three sisters, Demetrease Hawks, Tateisha Lee, and Aisha Coffey; two brothers, Tony and Anthony Hawks, Jr. (AJ); grandmother, Hazel Caldwell-Cephus; step-mother, Janenete Hawks; aunt, Jonette Summerfield; close nephew, Brandon Richardson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles and special friends.

“ May God strenghten you now more than he ever has. I have known Little Anthony since we were teenagers and he will be sincerely missed. Keep his memory alive for his children so they too will never forget the kind of person their Dad was. May you find some comfort in knowing that he will forever be in your hearts.##imported-begin##kaime##imported-end##

“ I wish to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Mr. Hawks. No doubt your hearts are heavy with sadness and grief. The comforting words at Revelation 21:3,4 and John 5:28,29 can help you cope. Death was not apart of God's arrangement, but one day soon, God's kingdom will remove sin and death from the earth.##imported-begin##K. D. Smith##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 kindly tells us that our "enemy death" will be "destroyed". We have the hope of our loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength as you think on these promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. The process of death was not Almighty God's purpose. That is why at Isaiah 25:8 Almighty God promised that He will swallow up death forever. Next, at Acts 24:15 Almighty God promised a resurrection that will take place. May these scriptures give you all a measure of comfort with the hope and promise of seeing your love one again.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. Hawks, I wish to express my deepest sympathy. I can particularly imagine the pain you are feeling, especially his mom, because I too lost my son at an early age. It's a loss that is extremely hard to bear. What comforts me is the sure hope of the resurrection made possible by the precious blood of our savior, Jesus. Rev.21,3,4 tells us that God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. One day instead of tears of sorrow we will be shedding tears of joy when we get to hold our loved ones in our arms again, and they will never have to leave us ever again. Death was never Jehovah's purpose for mankind, so soon he will rid the earth of this enemy, and we will be able to live in peace and happiness. I hope the promises of God, as well as your precious memories of your loved one bring you the comfort that you need.##imported-begin##R JohnaonrrR##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
