

Dana Anthony Mayers

June 18, 1986 - March 21, 2002

Dana Anthony Mayers, son of Vanessa L. Rice, was born June 18, 1986 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on March 25, 2002. Dana, known as “Ninky” to his family, had a brief education. He started his education at CharlesCarol of Carrollton, known as school # 139. He also attended Running Brook Elementary in Columbia, Maryland. Then went on to attend Gateway Middle School. He was attending, at this time, Lemmel Middle School. He can be remembered as Leah’s heart because he loved his grandmother and she loved him. He knew every doctor’s appointment and all her medications. He informed everyone in the family of her medical process and status upon her lengthy illness. He felt he wanted to protect her. We need to acknowledge that his mother, Vanessa Rice, did the best she could to her knowledge. Dana knew as a young child of four years old how to quote John 3:16, word for word. He leaves to mourn: one daughter, Daesha whom he loved very much, Dana also found a new love, as he knew it, with a young lady named Corinthia. We don’t know what it would have become or what empty hole it filled in his heart, but another baby in being born without a father. He also leaves to mourn: aunts and uncles, Joann Boyd, Jacqueline and Eric Harris, Joyce Robinson, Cassandra Robinson, Bernice Robinson, Bernadette and Bryant Seivers, Vincent and Robin, Victor Robinson, Pamela Robinson, James Rice, Oscar Rice, Ella Rice and Rudolph Rice; and a whole host of cousins and other relatives. Dana made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. His young life will be missed and should be a witness, for all here to go to their bibles and read it daily. Go to your Creator then you can see the prophecy at the following scriptures, John 3:16, II Timothy 3:1-5 and John 17:3
