

Dana Anthony Brown Sr.

June 1, 1958 - April 3, 2023

Dana Anthony Brown Sr. was born June 1, 1958 to Gloria and Warrington Brown in Baltimore City. He was the only child and the love of his parents life. Dana was called home to be with the Lord, suddenly on April 3, 2023 at John Hopkins Hospital surrounded by his family.

He attended Mergenthaler High School where he was popular and known for great dressing (Even until this day). After his graduation from Mervo in 1977, he attended Baltimore City Community College where he met Denise, the love of his life. In college he had a passion for Culinary Arts. His love for cooking led him to Sheppard Pratt as a Dedicated employee for 17 years where he retired.

Dana was known for his loving and caring spirit. He loved to help others in the community including feeding the homeless. He loved to grill. "The Grill Master" would give a cookout at any time. In his words "First time you are a guest second time your a pest." He also had a strong love for his family, especially the grand kids, who called him Pop-Pop. Pop-Pop was guaranteed to have plenty of snacks booyyy would he decorate for the holidays.

Dana was a driver, it was nothing for him to get up early and go. He could get to Atlantic City, New Jersey in 45 minutes. He was known for his driving as we all know Rain, Sleet, Snow or Hail. Dana was definitely going to get you where you need to be.

Dana was preceded in death by his parents Gloria and Warrington Brown; two sons Donte' and Dana Brown Jr. and a very special Aunt Lola Brown.

He leaves to cherish his memories, 3 daughters Robin, Tarsha and Lashae Brown; 8 grandchildren Chainece Borns, Artemus Neil Jr., Keyon Rice, Kennedy & Kenneth Rice, Semaj & Samaj'e Brown and Riley Brown; 1 great grandson Denver Smith; best friends Harry Ferguson, Lamont Dato, William Smith & Linda Johnson and a host of family and friends to remember him.
